MARINE CORPS BASES JAPAN ORDER 1020.1D w/Ch1,Ch2,Ch3,Ch4,Ch5

Subj: UNIFORM REGULATIONS

Ref: (a) MARCORMAN, par. 2806
(b) MCO P1020.34F
(c) TM-10120-15/1 (NOTAL)
(d) MCO 4650.30K
(e) ALMAR 127/97

* (f) MARADMIN 521/99
(g) USFJ INSTRUCTION 36-3006 of 1 June 2006

1. Purpose. To provide policies for the wearing of uniforms by Marine Corps personnel in Japan, in accordance with the provisions of the references.

2. Cancellation. MARCORBASESJAPANO 1020.1C.

3. Summary of Revisions. This Order contains the following changes:

a. Modifies the applicability to encompass all installations under the authority of Commander, Marine Corps Bases, Japan.

b. Updates utility uniform, undershirt, combat boots, sweater and nametag regulations.

c. Adds extended Cold Weather Clothing System (ECWCS) parka guidance.

d. Specifies authority to wear civilian attire during travel.

4. Scope. This Order is applicable to all Marines and Sailors assigned or attached to Marine Corps activities, organizations and units on Okinawa, Camp Fuji and Marine Corps Air Station (MCAS) Iwakuni. Paragraphs 6c and 6e, which prohibit the wearing of inappropriate civilian attire in public-use areas by Marines and Sailors, shall apply equally to all civilian personnel entering or living aboard Marine Corps installations.

5. General

a. The wearing of the uniform should be a matter of personal pride. Each individual is considered at all times to be an ambassador of the United States while serving in Japan and, as such, individual dress and conduct should reflect credit upon oneself, the Marine Corps and the United States.

b. Officers and staff noncommissioned officers are expected to set the standard for wearing the uniform and to ensure their Marines maintain those same high standards of military bearing and appearance. Accordingly, when participating at functions where the appropriate civilian dress is coat and tie, or where members of other services are to wear their equivalent of the service "A" uniform, Marines will wear the service "A" uniform.

c. This Order is not intended to supplant directive issued by individual camp commanders to accommodate local circumstances. However, in the event of a conflict between this Order and individual camp directives, this Order takes precedence. Additionally, clubs and messes are expected to establish and enforce dress codes suited to their membership and mode of operation.

6. Designated Uniforms

a. Uniform of the Day

(1) The uniform of the day is prescribed as service "C" with garrison/service cap. Commanding Generals may designate the utility uniform as the uniform of the day in lieu of the service uniform, as specified in paragraph 6b. At the commanding officer's discretion, during the period 1 December through 31 March, the service "A" or "B" uniform may be worn as an optional uniform when the service uniform is prescribed.

(2) Optional Rules for Female Marines

(a) Oxfords may be worn with the uniform of the day within the confines of a military installation only when individually authorized by the commanding officer.

(b) The wear of the service slacks as a working uniform should normally be at the option of the individual Marine. However, commanders may prescribe the wearing of the skirt or slacks on specific occasions when uniformity is required; i.e., formations or ceremonies. Slacks will not be worn on occasions when the service skirt is more appropriate.

b. Utility Uniform

(1) The utility uniform (Camouflage Utility Uniform, and the Combat Utility Uniform CUU (Camouflage and Desert Pattern) is authorized for wear in the field, for field type exercises, or for those work conditions where it is not practical to wear service uniform. (For Formation; Parades or Ceremonies, unit commanders may designate members of their commands to wear a specific utility uniform providing it is a required uniform item).

* (a) The utility uniform may be designated as the uniform of the day by Commanding Generals where the wearing of the utility uniform would serve as an enhancement of readiness. In such commands, wearing of the utility uniform will be considered appropriate for all on-base activities except as restricted by local regulations governing clubs, messes and recreational activities. The Green Marine Corps Pattern Uniform is the designated uniform of the day except for Wednesdays. The Desert ~~Green~~ Marine Corps Pattern uniform is the designated uniform of the day on Wednesdays.

(b) The following changeover dates for wearing of sleeves up or down are approximate and may vary from year to year based on weather conditions; specific changeover dates will be promulgated annually through the chain of command. Sleeves will be rolled up during the period 1 April through 30 November. During the period 1 December through 31 March, Marines and Sailors will have the option to wear the utility uniform with their sleeves rolled up or fully down. (Unit commanders may designate members of their commands to wear sleeves rolled up or down for formations). Due to unique weather conditions, Commanding Officer, Headquarters Battalion, Camp Fuji, and Commanding Officer, Marine Corps Air Station, Iwakuni, will exercise commander's discretion in specifying changeover dates at their locations. The sleeves will be worn uniformly (all rolled up or all fully down) for formations.

(c) Women Marines will not carry a purse in formation or when the utility uniform is worn. Reference (b) authorizes Women Marines to carry umbrellas at their option; however, carrying and using of umbrellas with the utility uniform is inappropriate and is prohibited.

(2) The wearing of the utility uniform outside camps or training areas is restricted to those personnel engaged in field duty, training, work details, courtesy patrols or traveling between areas where the utility uniform is authorized. Personnel are authorized to make brief and appropriate stops off-base during duty hours or while commuting while wearing the utility uniform. Authorized stops off-base

Ch 5 (21 SEP 2006)

during duty hours or while commuting while wearing the utility uniform. Authorized stops off-base include emergency stops for vehicle refueling and other such activities which can be transacted in a minimal amount of time, thus precluding the need to travel to one's residence, change attire and return to a business location to transact business which can be completed in a matter of minutes.

(a) The privilege provided by this paragraph places special trust and confidence in commanders and officers-in-charge, and in our Marines. To preclude abuse of this privilege, all Marines are charged with the responsibility to maintain the high appearance standards expected of them, whether on-base or off-base, while wearing the utility uniform. Sound judgment and common sense must be exercised in regards to the authorization for brief and appropriate off-base stops while wearing the utility uniform. Preventing abuse of the privilege demands commanders know where their Marines are at all times to ensure stops are in fact brief, appropriate and in keeping with the spirit of this directive.

(b) This policy does not authorize off-base stops while wearing the utility uniform, for prolonged activities such as grocery shopping, auto repairs (other than emergencies), shopping or eating meals. When making a brief and appropriate off-base stop while in the utility uniform, Marines will ensure their uniform is clean, serviceable, complete and squared away. In no case is the utility uniform authorized as a leave or liberty uniform.

(3) Personnel residing off-base with dependents and those authorized basic allowance for quarters in their own right are authorized to wear the utility uniform between their place of residence and place of duty subject to the restrictions set forth in paragraph 6b(2) of this Order. Travel via commercial bus in the utility uniform is not authorized.

(4) Insignia of grade will be worn on the utility coat by officers and enlisted personnel at all times. This includes garrison, field and combat environments. The emblem decal will be placed on the left breast pocket of the utility coat centered horizontally and vertically. Utility coats marked with the "USMC" emblem decal according to previously published instructions may be worn until they become unserviceable. Name/service tapes will be worn on the utility uniform as prescribed in paragraph 3032 of reference (b).

(5) The wearing of the utility coat with cut off sleeves is strictly prohibited; however, when authorized, the sleeves will be rolled with the inside out, forming a roll about three inches wide, and terminating at a point about two inches above the elbow. The utility coat will not be removed unless the individual is wearing an authorized undershirt.

(6) Utility trousers will be worn neatly bloused over the boots, low enough to cover the laces which may be wrapped around the boots. Personnel whose duties require the wearing of safety shoes/boots are exempt from this requirement.

(7) Officers/noncommissioned officers in charge of working parties or groups/teams engaged in athletics may prescribe the removal of the utility coat in appropriate circumstances. Officers/noncommissioned officers in charge may also authorize personnel working indoors in such places as offices, dining facilities and maintenance shops to wear the undershirt as the outer garment within the confines of the work area. The undershirt will be tucked into the trousers. If directed to remove their utility coats, individuals will remain covered when outdoors if not engaged in athletic activities.

c. Civilian Clothing. Marines are, by grooming standards, generally identifiable as Marines even when in civilian attire. Therefore, when civilian clothing is worn, Marines will ensure that their dress and personal appearance are conservative and commensurate with the high standards traditionally associated with the Marine Corps. Accordingly, it is essential to the reputation of our Corps that all Marines use discretion and good taste in their dress and personal appearance, to include tattoos. Tattooing any part of the head, face and neck is prohibited. The following items of dress are prohibited:

(1) Outer garments inscribed with designs or words which may be interpreted as obscene, racially offensive or drug culture oriented.

(2) Clothing which has been cut or otherwise altered to present an abbreviated covering, specifically, in the case of

Ch 1 (1 Jul 97)

male Marines where the midriff is exposed, and in female Marines where the alteration offers immodest exposure.

(3) Clothing which is obviously tattered or soiled is not considered appropriate liberty attire. Athletic attire, such as running shorts and non-casual wear sweat suits, is appropriate for athletic events and is not appropriate attire for liberty and entry into military or civilian facilities. Athletic attire, when appropriately worn for off-base activities such as jogging, or near populated areas such as exchanges and clubs will always include an upper body covering.

(4) Footwear is a prescribed item for any liberty uniform. Flat rubber shower shoes or house shoes are not considered appropriate footwear for liberty.

d. Liberty Attire. The uniform of the day or appropriate civilian attire are authorized for leave and liberty.

* e. Civilian Headgear. When wearing civilian headgear it will be removed when indoors, except that women may wear headgear indoors in accordance with established social norms. The wearing of clothing articles not specifically designed to be normally worn as headgear (e. g. bandannas) are prohibited.

f. Attire for On-Base Facilities

(1) Chapels. The uniform of the day or appropriate civilian attire shall be worn when attending services at chapels. The utility uniform may be worn for services at the chapel when personnel are in a duty status and the uniform is prescribed for the performance of their duties.

(2) Theater. The uniform of the day or appropriate civilian attire shall be worn while within the theater. The utility uniform may be worn when personnel are in a duty status and the uniform is prescribed for the performance of their duties.

(3) Exchange/Commissary Facilities. The uniform of the day, utility uniform or appropriate civilian attire are authorized for wear within the exchange and commissary facilities.

(4) Dining Facilities. The uniform of the day, utility uniform and flight suits (when in flight status) are authorized for wear within the dining facilities. Appropriate civilian attire may be worn at all meals in lieu of the uniform of the day when personnel are in a leave/liberty status.

(5) Clubs. Dress codes may be incorporated into the "house rules" of each club; however, the dress codes will meet the same high standards established for personnel in uniform.

* g. Attire for Personnel Returning to CONUS. In accordance with reference (d), Marine Corps personnel traveling aboard Air Mobility Command (AMC) category B missions (military air charter/"Freedom Bird") or commercial aircraft are authorized to wear civilian clothes unless an individual's orders specifically require the wearing of a uniform. Marine Corps personnel traveling aboard AMC category M military or organic aircraft will wear the appropriate military uniform. When traveling in civilian clothes, Marines will dress appropriately and ensure their personal appearance is commensurate with the high standards usually associated with the Marine Corps. When shorts are worn, they will be of the "dress" type and not athletic style. In accordance with reference (g), U.S. military personnel are not authorized to wear the utility uniform while traveling in Japan via public conveyances (i.e. civilian aircraft, trains, subways, etc).

7. Uniform Items

a. Headgear. The garrison/service cap may be worn at all times with the service uniform. The service cap will normally not be worn in formation. However, commanders may prescribe the wear of the service cap on specific occasions, including formations. Other types of headgear may be authorized by commanding officers as dictated by safety regulations.

b. Undershirts. All Marines are required to maintain the quantity of undershirts prescribed in the current edition of Marine Corps Bulletin 10120. The white V-neck undershirt is authorized for optional purchase and wear. Regulations for wearing of undershirts are as follows:

(1) The wearing of undershirts is at the option of the individual, except that commanders may require the wearing of the standard issue crew neck undershirt at such times, as uniformity is considered essential, such as at ceremonies, formations, or inspections. Additionally, the utility coat will not be removed unless the individual is wearing an authorized undershirt.

* (2) The brown or olive green undershirts are the only undershirts authorized for wear with the utility uniform, flight suits or coveralls. The green tee shirt is the only authorized undergarment permitted with the Marine Corps pattern uniform, flight suits or coveralls.

c. Combat Boots. Combat boots or safety shoes will be worn with the utility uniform. Commanders may prescribe the wearing of standard issue boots on specific occasions when uniformity is required; i.e., inspections, parades, and ceremonies.

* (1) The standard Black boot until phase out of old style uniform may be worn until current phase out date. The Brown suede boot (cold or warm weather boot) is only to be worn with new Marine Corps Pattern uniform.

(2) Optional combat boots may be worn in conformance with paragraph 3010.2 of reference (b). These items will not be used to satisfy minimum requirements.

d. Camouflage Field Coat. The camouflage field coat is not authorized for wear with the service uniform. It will not be marked with the USMC/emblem decal, nor will it be worn with name and service tapes.

e. Parka. Marines are allowed to purchase the ECWCS parka as an optional uniform item. The ECWCS parka is intended for wear with the utility uniform at the Marine's option, except when the field coat is prescribed by the commander. The ECWCS parka is not authorized for wear with the service uniform. The grade insignia will be worn centered on the zipper flap in the space provided on the ECWCS parka.

f. Sweaters

(1) Marine Corps Personnel

(a) Green Service Sweater. The service sweater, when worn with the service uniform, may be worn for leave and liberty and for commuting to and from work. The service sweater is inappropriate for wear in ceremonial formations or parades. The service sweater may be worn with civilian attire. It may also be worn with the camouflage utility coat with the sleeves of the utility coat rolled down.

(b) Blue Dress Sweater. The blue dress sweater may be worn at the individual's option as a component of the blue dress "C" uniform. The dress sweater will not be worn for ceremonies or other occasions for which the wearing of the blue coat would be more appropriate. It may be worn as part of the duty uniform both on and off the installation, for commuting to and from work and for leave and liberty. The blue dress sweater may be worn with civilian attire.

(2) Navy Personnel Serving with the Marine Corps. Those Navy enlisted personnel who wear the Navy service uniform are authorized to wear their issue Navy blue pullover or the optional Marine Corps green service sweater with the utility uniform. Navy officers, chief petty officers and those Navy enlisted personnel who wear Marine Corps service uniforms may continue to wear the Marine Corps green service sweater as currently authorized.

g. Ribbons and Badges. When khaki shirts are worn as outer garments, the wearing of ribbons is at the individual's option unless prescribed by the commander. If ribbons are worn, either all ribbons, or only personal U. S. decorations with U. S. unit awards and the Good Conduct Medal may be worn. Marksmanship badges may be worn at the option of the individual. Commanding officers may require the wearing of ribbons and badges on appropriate uniforms.

h. Nametags. Nametags are authorized for wear at schools, conferences and related activities. Nametags are also authorized for wear by personnel assigned to the military police department and the joint forces correctional unit, and by personnel whose duties involve frequent dealing with the public where a visible means of identification is necessary. The nametag will be a flexible thermoplastic translucent base material with black velvet mar-resistant, non-glare finish surface and a white core. It will indicate the individual's last name only. The nametag will be five-eighths of an inch wide and three inches long. The name will be in white, blocked type letters, three-eighths of an inch high by approximately three-sixteenths of an inch wide. The nametag may only be worn on service and blue dress uniforms when worn as the uniform of the day. The nametag will be centered one-eighth of an inch above the right breast pocket on uniforms with such pockets and in the same general position on uniforms that do not have pockets.

i. Accessories. The wearing of non-military backpacks while in uniform is prohibited. Conservative wristwatches, watchbands and rings are permitted while in uniform. Sunglasses may be worn on leave, liberty and in garrison, but not in formation unless the need to wear sunglasses has been certified by medical authorities. Eccentric or conspicuous eyepieces, e.g., small octagonal shaped or oversized frames shall not be worn while in uniform, nor will chains, bands or ribbons be attached to eyeglasses. Commanders may authorize exceptions to this for physical training or field training. Jewelry, combs, pencils, pens or other similar items will not be worn or carried exposed upon the Marine when in uniform unless otherwise authorized by CMC or higher authority. The wearing of earrings by male Marines, under any circumstances, is prohibited.

j. Optional Wear of Earrings by Women Marines

(1) Small, polished, yellow gold color, ball or round stud earrings (post, screw-on or clip), not to exceed six millimeters, (approximately one-fourth inch in diameter), are authorized for optional wear with the service, blue dress, blue-white dress and white dress uniform.

(2) Small white pearl or pearl-like earrings (post, screw-on or clip), not to exceed six millimeters (approximately one-fourth inch in diameter), are authorized for optional wear with the evening dress uniforms and with the blue dress "A" and white dress "A" uniforms when worn for social events.

(3) When worn, earrings will fit tightly against, and will not extend below, the earlobe. Only one earring may be worn on or in each earlobe.

(4) Earrings are not authorized for wear with the utility uniform, nor will they be worn while in formation, or when the Marine is participating in a parade or similar military function.

k. Optional Purchase of Handbag

(1) The black handbag, as sold by the Marine Corps Supply System or as sold through military clothing sales stores may be purchased and carried as an optional item by Women Marines. Women Marines may also purchase optional handbags which do not contain Marine Corps approval identification from commercial sources provided they conform to guidelines set forth in paragraph 3013 of reference (b).

(2) Women officers will procure a clutch purse(s) to carry with dress uniforms. Either the basic white clutch purse with fabric slip-on covers, sold through military clothing sales stores, or black or white clutch purses purchased from commercial sources, may be used with appropriate dress uniforms. The clutch purse will be plain, unadorned, rectangular, and will not exceed six by nine inches.

8. Specialized Uniform Items

a. Military Police. The uniform and equipment for Marines assigned to authorized military police billets is prescribed in paragraph 7011 of the reference (b).

b. Flight Clothing. Paragraph 7005 of reference (b) provides detailed guidance on the wearing of flight clothing.

(1) Flight clothing is authorized for wear by personnel directly involved in actual flight operations. The wearing of flight clothing outside the working/squadron areas will be governed by the same regulations which apply to the utility uniform.

(2) Only those Marines who have been properly issued and are required to maintain the flight jacket are permitted to wear the jacket with the service "B", "C" and "service with sweater" uniform during duty hours and during movement to and from domicile. When worn with the service uniform, only one Chief of Naval Operations/Commandant of the Marine Corps approved unit/squadron patch is authorized. The patch, if worn, will be on the right front of the jacket, level with the nametape on the left side.

c. Maternity Uniform. Maternity uniforms will be worn by pregnant Marines when the local commander determines regular uniforms can no longer be worn. Paragraph 3016 of reference (b) provides specific guidance in the proper wearing of the maternity service uniform or the maternity camouflage work uniform, as appropriate.

d. Organizational Clothing/Working Uniform

(1) Organizational work uniforms are those uniforms which may be prescribed on the job to the nature of the work performed. The following uniforms are defined as "works uniforms" and will be worn only in work areas. These regulations are equally applicable to Marine Corps enlisted men and women:

(a) Coveralls.

* (b) Mess Hall uniform. This uniform is authorized for military cooks and bakers only. The uniform consists of white cover, red three quarter length sleeve chef's coat, and black trousers bloused over black combat boots. Placement of name tag on the chef's coat will be centered on the right side, with the bottom edge of the name tag even with the top of the second button. Black rank insignia shall be centered on the left pocket with the tip of the chevron even with the top of the pocket.

(c) Marine Morale, Welfare and Recreation (MWR) uniforms such as distinctive shirts, coveralls or jump suits which may be required for wear by personnel assigned to Marine MWR. Their wear will be governed by instructions published by the Director, Marine MWR.

(2) Eye protection (impact resistant eyeglasses, goggles or a face shield attached to the helmet).

(3) High visibility reflective vest (international orange, lime green or bright yellow).

(4) Leather shoes or boots fully covering the foot below the ankle. The standard issue low quarter are acceptable.
